

Damiera, M(Us)ic

Found left was a needless contender extending comprehending the balance to stand tall invested in cooperative landing contradictions in the flow drowning, falling embracing careless default it disproves upon the calendar day paused, trailing - we're all lost in the day sinking, to a place to call something something making its way to function from all logistic thoughts and cautious reactions are undone while this high wire we're strung from leaves us exposed and overcome accept, accept lasting elation bridging anticipation all the while, holding our breath can it, can it stop from dissolving my thoughts? stranded, broken - withdrawn - a body left to steady and actualize now it's focused a body left that's steady and actual
