

Damnells, I Am A Leaver

Lock your lips with eastern time,
Lead my heart, and leave in mind.
See my soul makes it home.
I'm high in wretched why.
I'm standing here alone.

I left you on the street,
With a face so long, that it touched your feet.

I am a leaver.
Is my time wasting well?
I am a leaver.
How have I landed, since I fell?

Roaming streets, I've never found.
Singing songs, without a sound.
Cannot shake you from the tree,
And so you're in the ground,
Keep you next to me.

You left me in defeat,
With a loss so great, that I can't retreat.

I am a leaver,
Is my time wasting well?
I am a leaver,
How have I landed, since I fell?

Guitar

Treasures dropped in the sea.
Lovers leap, like you and me.
I am a sucker and a sin.
But baby, I believe in no refugees.

I left you on the street,
With a face so long, that it touched your feet.

I am a leaver.
Is my time wasting well?
I am a leaver.
How have I landed, since I fell?

I am a leaver,
I am a shaken, battered shell.
I am a leaver,
I am a liar, can't you tell?
Can't you tell?
Can't you tell?
