

Damone, You're The One

Forever pushin' ten to midnight
Fade into the black
Tonight I'm blowing through the red lights
Always thinkin' back

It really doesn't matter
It's all in my mind
I think about it all of the time

You're the one living in the moment
I thought everything was sure
You're the one telling me it's hopeless
Don't know what I'm sorry for

The losers and the runaround guys
Hang out in the street
I'd wait until you said your goodbyes
Just so we could meet

It really doesn't matter
It's all in my mind
I think about it all of the time

You're the one living in the moment
I thought everything was sure
You're the one telling me it's hopeless
Don't know what I'm sorry for

You're the one

I'm caught between "I want" and "what's right";

You're the one living in the moment
I thought everything was sure
You're the one telling me it's hopeless
Don't know what I'm sorry for

You're the one
