

Damone, Your Girlfriends

Run to the back, go and hide.
I will keep you from breaking this heart of mine.
After the wash, take them home.
Keep their feet out of my ground so I come alone.
On my time, you always stare.
And you know your girlfriends treat me so unfair.

Ahhhhh your girlfriends treat me so unfair,
ahhhhh your girlfriends point at me and stare.

Call my name, the carwash kid,
come and make me change so I can vac again.
I wanna sack the girl in the brown,
if she don't stop throwing all her trash on all my ground.
On my time, you always stare.
And you know your girlfriends treat me so unfair.

Ahhhhh your girlfriends treat me so unfair,
ahhhhh your girlfriends point at me and stare. (x3)
