

Dan And Shay, Always Gonna Be

Paradise is a swing on a porch
Summertime is a little too short
The best things in life are free
And they're always gonna be
Hometown is a heaven on earth
Sundays are for football and church The world turns but I believe
There's always gonna be

Beer drinking kids on a backroad Good country songs on the radio Tailgates falling down on a Friday
Some things are always gonna be

Girl your eyes are my favorite blue
I double-take when I wake up with you I'm so in love with you loving on me And I'm always gonna be

Holding you close for the rest of my life Forever and ever baby just like

Always gonna hold your hand
Always gonna ask you to dance
Even when we're pushing 80
You're still gonna drive me crazy
