

Dan Auerbach, Real Desire

I know that you're wanted
By every little man in town
Take your pick and baby, let him serve you, yeah
Oh, but you, you ain't put them down

Talk but never listen
Is how you wanna play your game
Try that stuff on me, baby
Oh, and I will, I will do the same

'Cause you wanna set the world on fire
Little man will never do
Things you think are real desire, oh girl
Oh I, I see right through

Ooh, ooh
Ooh

Clouded skies have lifted
And voices ring out from the choir
If you say you never meant to hurt me, no
Oh, you would be a liar

'Cause you wanna set the world on fire
And a little man will never do
Things you think are real desire, oh darlin'
You know I, I see right through, yeah

Oh, ooh, ooh
