

Dan Bern, Queen

Do you got to be a queen all your life
Are you gonna take that crown off your head
Are you ever gonna come to bed
Do you got to be a queen all your life
Do you plan on speaking in this year
Are you gonna keep everything inside
Are you gonna keep all your great thoughts to yourself
Do you got to be a queen all your life
Get off your throne
I'm alone
Get off your throne
I'm walking and moaning
I'm dying alone
Do you got to be a queen all your life
Do you got to cake on one more layer of make-up everyday
Are you ever gonna tell me what you want me to do or say
Do you gotta be a queen all your life
