

Dan Hill, Fountain

Woman please don't try
Explaining how or why - I understand
Love's too beautiful to explain
And nothing can be wrong
With loving him again
He really loves you
I can see him in your eyes
And like a fountain
You offer no disguise
And babe, I'm glad you've never tried

And the night times that we shared
Made me gratefully aware
That I was happy
So real so undefined
And I just want you to be you
In a lifestyle undefined
You really love him
I can see you in his eyes
And like a fountain
He offers no disguise
And babe, I'm glad he's never tried

I read somewhere
That grown men never cry
Their heart just freezes over
For a day
So instead - here's my masculine
Goodbye
May love be with you all the way
My guitar does all my crying
Anyway
There's happiness combined
With the pain within my mind
You gave me feelings
That I never knew existed
And all you'd do is laugh
And my defenses would be lifted
And I love you
You're sketched so softly in my eyes
And like a fountain
I offer no disguise
And babe, I'm glad I've never tried
