

Dan Hill, I Wanna Make Love To You

I see you when you think no one sees.
I feel you (so close) every time you breathe.
I need you more than I needed anyone, it's true.
I wanna make love to you.
Walking down some crowded street,
Your laughter (so pure) sounds like a symphony.
Desire sweeps through me tryin' to stay cool, it's true.
I wanna make love to you. Wanna make love to you.
And it feels like we've waited so long
Just to see what we really feel.
Girl, with you by my side,
My world comes alive.
You whisper (so soft) something I can't repeat.
Your skin brushes close, touches mine so innocently.
The sun burns hot, need some relief, it's true.
I wanna make love to you (you're so close).
Wanna make love to you (wanna be a part of you).
And it feels like I've waited a lifetime
Just to tell you what's on my mind.
It's so hard to reveal
All the passion I feel.
I wanna make love to you. (I just wanna make love, oh.)
Wanna make love to you. (I just wanna make love to you.)
Wanna make love to you. (I just wanna make love.)
(Let me hold you till you're a part of me.)
I wanna make love to you. (I just wanna make love.)
(till you're in ecstasy)
Wanna make love to you. (I just wanna make love to you.)
(You're eyes are so soft and sweet.)
Wanna make love to you. (I just wanna make love.)
(Let me hold you till you're a part of me.)
I wanna make love to you. (I just wanna make love.)
Wanna make love to you. (I just wanna make love to you.)
Wanna make love to you. (I just wanna make love.)
