

Dan's Home Grown, I Love You Not

i love you not

we've been dating for a week and now you're asking me if i love you i don't know what to say hey, why don't we hit the hay i'll be your love slave in the morning pretend that we're okay
you're moving fast
don't get attached
i think you're hot, but i love you not

when i'm with you
i don't wanna hear the words that don't mean anything to me i don't love you
i will never say those words that don't mean anything to me

we are nothing but a fling so don't expect a thing from me girl you're way too serious why don't you just build a bridge so you can get over it and me girl we're friends with benefits
you're moving fast
don't get attached
i think you're hot
but i love you not

i don't wanna hear the words that don't mean anything to me i don't love you, i will never say those words that don't mean anything to me

pathetic hopeless romantic this is why you never get it single is the way for me come play with me

you're moving fast
don't get attached
i love your bod (ooohhh baby)

you're moving fast
don't get attached
i think you're hot

when i'm with you
i don't love you

that's right!
