

Dandy Boy, Like In The Movies

I so wanna touch you, I'm not like this I burst Just let me touch you I was never like this I buuuuuuurst You're so hard to convince, let us make a few sins you're so hard to convince let us make a few siiiiiins

For the first time in my life I started caring more about someone else than about myself
I always thought that love would be like in the movies
I realise now everything I say sounds naive

It's impossible yet true, never thought I'd see something in you, I never fall but once I do...
I can't get out of the hole everything runs outta control, outta control you make me wanna SAAAAAAY IiiiiiiiiiiiiIT

For the first time in my life I started caring
more about someone else than about my self
I always thought that love would be like in the movies
I realise now everything I say sounds naive...

I wanted to believe.
