

Danger Radio, Where I Started

Bring me back to where I started
Tell me how I got so lost
Bring me back to days uncharted
Oh won't you to tell me how I got so lost

I've seen a big change
In how I think lately
No signs of sympathy, waoh-oh-oh
Came out and came clean
Force fed the enemy
For her tranquility, waoh-oh-oh

Brought me down with her vanity
Face to face was destroying me
Completely driven by a deadly obsession
The words slide into her ear
She doesn't listen, guess I wasn't clear
Pushed down to the ground - it's an emergency

Bring me back to where I started
Tell me how I got so lost
Bring me back to days uncharted
Oh won't you to tell me how I got so lost

She played a huge role
In how I've been lately
Stole all my sanity, waoh-oh-oh
Held tight and kissed me
And now I'm completely
Under this certainty, whoa whoa

Maybe love can exist in me
Through this girl who I never see
Too many questions that have been left unanswered
She holds me down so I never leave
She holds cards I had never seen
Pushed down to the ground - it's an emergency

Bring me back to where I started
Tell me how I got so lost
Bring me back to days uncharted
Oh won't you to tell me how I got so lost

I try to forget
Live my life in regret
Looked to you for respect
Now I slowly reflect
On the life that you stole
But I'm breaking through slowly
So don't try and hold me

Bring me back to where I started
Tell me how I got so lost
Bring me back to days uncharted
Oh won't you to tell me how I got so lost

Bring me back to where I started
(To where I started)
Tell me how I got so lost
(Waoh-oh)
Bring me back to days uncharted
(To where I started)
Oh won't you to tell me how I got so lost
(Yeah, yeah)

Bring me back to where I started
(To where I started)
Tell me how I got so lost
(Waoh)
Bring me back to days uncharted
(To where I started)
Oh won't you to tell me how I got so lost
