

Dash, Game Over

Don't teach me the rules
I won't play with you
Unlike other girls - no tricks, no games
That's how we connect
But when I'm direct
Don't take it as a joke

Oh great, now you need me
I'm your girl to sleep with
But I can't just sleep all the time
My love is oppressive
Is this message received?!
You've got no choice
You must accord!

I don't want to run like a rabbit
On the other hand, I don't want to be stuck in habbit
Why do we have to choose?
I want to feel save, but I want our lust to go loose!
