

Dave Dudley, Short Memory

No need to tell me where you've been for I know who's in town again
And tonight you saw him secretly oh you've got a short memory
Yes you've got a short memory you don't care how much you hurt me
So I guess this is where I came in I can see you'll take him back again
And after all your promises to me oh yes you've got a short memory
And after all your promises to me oh yes you've got a short memory
