

Dave Hollister, A Women Will

Mmm, mmm, mmm

Mmm, mmm

Woo, mmm

It's funny how a woman does so much

There's nothin' she won't do when she trusts you

She will let you in

She will lift you up

She will take good good care of you

Have you on your knees poppin' question

That's when you become her protection

But if you lose trust

Soon she'll be out

That's when it all falls apart

1 - A woman will carry you

a woman will marry you and a woman will bury you

but she may ease up

if she lose your trust shes gone

Repeat 1

Listen to me

Had a little somethin' cookin' on the side

Before long, it'd start burnin' up my time

Never stopped to think what it would cost me

And I never thought that it'd come back to haunt me

Heard it said, time and time again

Never wanted this to come to and end

But you sow what you reap

And you reap what you sow

And I know she won't ever come around me no more

Repeat 1

Repeat 1

Might as well start diggin' my grave (oh)

See if I knew then what I know right now (oh)

If I knew back then, if I knew about it, mmm (oh)

I would have never ever let my baby down (oh)

Never let my lady down, lady down, lady down (oh)

She deserves so much better than I gave (oh)

So much better, so much better than I gave (oh)

So now I might as well lay right down

In this bed I made, in this bed I made

Repeat 1

Repeat 1

Repeat 1

Repeat 1

See my baby's gone away (oh)

Whoa oh oh (oh)

Ohh, oh oh (oh)

She's gone away (oh oh)

Whoa oh oh...
