

Dave Hollister, Karma

Babygirl what's your name cause I like
No I don't have a girl I'm so trife She's probably at the crib being a good wife Without a clue that I'm coming to you tonight
She told me if I ever sneak she'd know
But she doesn't even know where I go So like a fool to please my ego
I knocked her down like Roy Jones body blow

She'd layed it on me vicious no what I mean Then granted me 3 wishes now see
I don't want my girl to know where we be and I don't want you to rock with nobody but me and for my last wish I want to know what the red light blinking is behind thoses blinds
She taped the whole thing and sent it to my girl
I'm Karma vingence is mine

K A R M A
Everything about her comes back around
K A R M A
Everything you do will find you somehow
K A R M A
On the card she left me was her name
K A R M A

Two weeks later I met this guy drinking
He looked down so I asked what he was thinking
He told me about this girl he met one weekend
He had a wife but she was so worth the sneakin'
He took her shopping even took her on a cruise
He had a which was cool
By the time he got home it was to late Wife and kids was gone and on the floor was this tape

She'd layed it on me vicious no what I mean Then granted me 3 wishes lets see
I don't want my girl to know where we be and I don't want you to rock with nobody but me and
for my last wish I want to know what the red
light blinking is behind thoses blinds
She taped the whole thing and sent it to his wife

Know that Karma looking for ya
You can't run you can't hide there's no use putting up a fight.

Put out an APB for this black girl she's chinese no she's white what in the world Be on the look out cause she can change faces and by the sound of things even change races please beware cause trouble maybe weak she's probably getting another victim now as we speak so check your record if you done any wrong You'll soon be relating to this song
