

Dave Mason, Every Woman

Every Woman

Dave Mason

Dont misunderstand me, though
I know that Ive been mean
Woman cant you see that Im in need
Although we may be far apart
In heart and soul were near
My body aches for you to just be here

You are every woman in the world to me
And every season I go through
You are every woman in the world to me
Especially when Im making love to you

Like a falling tear drop
You can wipe away my blues
Live honey you can make the bitter sweet
Youre a child, a girl, a woman
You are everything Id choose
Thats why I sing this song to you
Thats why I sing this song to you
