

David Gray, Fugitive

Is the answer none of the above
Crouched in a whole like a mud-streaked fugitive
And everyday a different version of Pourin' it away like a water through a sieve
Hey better realize my friend
Love in the end now you can't take it well
Gotta live
If only for a second
I see a twinklin' in your eye
Gotta try
Well its flesh and blood and camouflage
In through the wall now somethings gotta give
Just another right to sabotage
See through the haze of a mind-rot sedative
When will you realize my friend
Love in the air now you cant take it well
Gotta live
If only for a second
I see a twinklin' in your eye
Gotta try
The one that you're forsaken
Surely more than just a lie
Gotta try musicvl.com
Yeah
When will you realize my friend
Love in the end now you can't take it well
Gotta live
If only for a second
I see a twinklin' in your eye
Gotta try
The one that you?re forsaken
Surely more than just a lie
Gotta try
It's for the taken
And you know not to justify
Gotta try
Everyday is a different version of Enjoy.
