

David Gray, Madder Rain

Well I don't want nowhere to go
There's nothing there I need to know
Cause everyday is just the same
In deeper blue, or madder rain
Count the numbers
Check the sums
Hand it father down to son
Better find someone to blame
For madder rain
Madder rain
Madder rain
Madder rain
I don't want no one to see
The fear I hide inside of me
The tear that fall now on my shoe
A thousand miles away from you
No use to hide
Nowhere to run
Still hear it falling in the sun
So grab your gun and take a train
For madder rain
Madder rain
Madder rain
Madder rain
Washing you cold
Washing you numb
Washing you further from the one
So fuck it all and laugh again
At madder rain
Madder rain
Madder rain
Madder rain
Madder rain
Madder rain
Madder rain
