

Days Of The New, Special Guide

For you it's been so impossible, so difficult
To guide me
I'm gonna make it impossible to guide me
I am the one who can't see, I am blinded
If you guide you will fly
Special guide

I am the one who takes the day and turns it away
Like a occupied mirror , I can't see my face
If you want to take the day (and turn it away)
You must first fly
And if you want to take the day , you need a special guide
No one knows why I punched myself...myself
I'm gonna make it, I'm gonna take it, I'm gonna turn it
I'm won't stay , you can
The path complete, the day is desecrate, I turn it away
I turn it away
