Momma got the rhythm to my daylife
My pops gots enough so best to leave or sail the waves

And how I relate, the same side of my gates Paper days, mess up my mind, ground zero degrees and the weather feels fine
You opened my eyes man, thought I had a man
But how could I eyescan, I wasn't around
I seen the states and played the dates in the far-far Gathered the new, from the zoas around
Grew up with Mikey Rodes and played the codes
Sometimes I don't budge, without my cous' Fuzz/fuzz
A simple, "How ya do?" Ah check it from my friends and my crew makes it definitely special

Now there's no +Shiny Happy People+ in the crew we play the rough I got the huff, and puff, to blow the house low You know the neverending factor while I'm over, tell a squid I know an Enterprising brother, so report to the bridge I bounce a ball with my left, a squid with my right (Cause a squid is just a punk) Yo he deserved to lose the fight I might meander 'cross your dream, travellin up the stream Plug Wonder Wonder Why you're lonely tonight We see the girls scream as if we're shocked by the live shell Let's round em up and get em back to the hotel motel, holiday, inn-fact! I'm gonna let you know, once again, that De La Soul is sure to show you we will hit the charter harder than the normal rappin fool "ah one two, ah one two"
