

De/Vision, Into Another World

The million words which confuse me
I can't explain what they mean
They tell a strange kind of story
Ridiculous and wrong at all

Try to run away
Hide your face
Escape just for a while
Take me with you

Don't misunderstand its meaning
Possibly you might be sad
And for a while you're dreaming
You're sleeping in your bed

Try to run away
Hide your face
Escape just for a while
Take me with you
