

De/Vision, Obey Your Heart

Obey the voice of your heart
Move to the sound
Of the underground
Focused on infinity
Infirm of purpose
Underneath the surface

Make the pace
Feel you blood surge through your veins
Sing out loud
Watch your dreams come floating out
Love's tender embrace
Sends you right out to space
Use your brain
Only you can ease you pain

Obey the voice of your heart
Move to the sound
Of the underground
You're free to do as you please
Your mind is going
Your body's flowing
