

De/Vision, The Way You Treat Me

I'm alone
I try to understand why you go
Please take me in your arms tonight
To hear your breath
And hold me tight

And I go
To the place I should ignore
Believe me
Please
And come once more
To touch your breast
In the dark night

My latent dreams
I wish you were here
I feel the heat
In my hands again

The time had come
The game began
I payed for love
And we had fun
The night was long
Her face so bright
Her voice so strong
She holds me tight

You say
You'll never leave me
You say
You'll always need me
And the way you treat me
Is acceptable
