

De/Vision, Time Stands Still (Tonight)

You lie by my side
I touch your skin
Love at first sight
The time stands still
I give you a kiss
Don't let me go
The last four days
I missed you so

You see tears in my eyes
Should I cry or should I smile
You belong to me
Time stands still
Tonight

With all my heart
I stare at you
You smile at me sweetly
I come back to you
Such is life
It's strange to say
The time flies by
What can I do

You see tears in my eyes...
