

Deacon Blue, Ragman

offered her a roof
the rain had made it shine offered her a song wasn't really mine

i showed her all my things
she offered me belongings
she thought i was a ragman

she offered me possessions i tied them in a knot wrapped it in a note kept it in my pocket

i came to her too soon she should have had a ragdoll and wound up with a ragman wing and kites and wedding rings all these charms i said i'd bring

baby you're a rich man lost in a small world looking for a ragdoll wound up with a ragman
with a ragman
ragman
