

Deacon Blue, That Brilliant Feeling

I hope one day all the waters will clear
I want to see them rolled away
I hope one day all the stones and the secrets
I want to see them blown away, so get in love

Call me joy ,call me will ,call me anything
Call me hopeful
I've got that brilliant feeling

I hope one day all the lies and dust
I want to see them blown away
I hope one day I stand on these sands
I want to be there so get in love

Call me joy ,call me will ,call me anything
Call me hopeful
I've got that brilliant feeling

I hope one day they'll turn around all things
I hope one day they'll turn around all things
I hope one day they'll turn around all things
So get in love

Call me joy ,call me will ,call me anything
Call me hopeful
I've got that brilliant feeling

One bright morning
I'll fly away
