Dead Can Dance, In Power We Entrust The Love

Sail on silver wings through this storm What fortune love may bring Back to my arms again The love of a former golden age

I am disabled by fears Concerning which course to take For now that the wheels are turning I find my faith deserting me

This night is filled with cries Of dispossessed children in search of Paradise A sign of unresolve that envisioned Drives the pinwheel on and on

I am disabled by fears Concerning which course to take When memory bears witness To the innocence consumed in dying rage

The way lies through our love
There can be no other means to the end
Or keys to my heart
You will never find
You will never find
