

Deadman, Lonely Times

lonely times are haunting me just like a ghost in my house you wait for dawn like an angel to come and pull you out of this place lonely people feeling blue lonely people just like you there are times to say we have grace and so much to give and we say prayers to jesus because jesus has felt our pain lonely people just like him when will they ever sink in?
but i can't hear for the traffic noise the lonely people playing with their toys
