

Deadstar Assembly, Darker Now

A friendship that's gone astray
Thanks to you I'm affixed to the pain
Your gift of tormenting me
This calloused fist a sanctuary

Keep on cutting into me
Hardening this severed cord
You can't see through me
Like you did before
Like you did before

Keep on bleeding me with your lies
It's making me darker inside
Keep on bleeding me alive
It's making me darker inside
Our friendship drowning in the well
Everything that we are has gone to hell
Keep on bleeding me with your lies
It's making me darker
I'm darker now

A friendship so far from this
Cynical fits your every dying breath
Once a friend now something less
Years they've faded
It all falls apart instead

Keep on cutting into me
Hardening this severed cord
You can't see through me
Like you did before
Like you did before

Keep on bleeding me with your lies
It's making me darker inside
Keep on bleeding me alive
It's making me darker inside
Our friendship drowning in the well
Everything that we are has gone to hell
Keep on bleeding me with your lies
It's making me darker
I'm darker now

You can't see through me
Like you did before
Like you did before
You can't see through me
Like you did before
Like you did before
You can't see through me
You can't see through me

Keep on bleeding me with your lies
It's making me darker inside
Our friendship drowning in the well
Everything that we are has gone to hell
Keep on bleeding me with your lies
It's making me darker
I'm darker now

You can't see through me

You can't see through me
Like you did before
Like you did before
