

Dean Strickland, Crush Or Love?

I see a brand new fork in the road up ahead
And still have an option to turn back instead
Of entering into a strange new world unknown
If I go back though I'll wonder could I have grown

Crush or love?
Crush or love?
Crush or love?
Crush or love?
Crush or love?
Crush or love?
Crush or love?

Lately a new love has entered in my life
Along with aching feelings that cut like a knife
I've got to be bold and try to set my mind free
So I will take the hard road still unknown to me

Crush or love?
Crush or love?
Crush or love?
Crush or love?
Crush or love?

Crush or love?
Crush or love?

Life's a gamble and I play to win
I try to be good and stay clear of sin
To error human forgiveness divine
To my new love I'll promise to always walk the line
I want to tell my love exactly how I feel
With honest words and a loving soul that is real
And if I must I will calmly fall back with grace
And keep on moving ahead at my own steady pace

Crush or love?
Crush or love?
Crush or love?
Crush or love?
Crush or love?
Crush or love?
Crush or love?