

Death In Vegas, Killing Smile

you can spend your life behind my falling star this life will meet you with a long killing smile I got a time to spare but you dont made it(?) Ive got my mind in anyway you can always shine behind my hidden dark just like a flame I move with you I couldnt tell im not the one who ever walks light dont have a feeling but I wanna waste my time but you know i got to and you know I want to with you all the time
Im feeling like I want to hang around dont have a leading any more to let it down but you know I want to
with you
and you that I could
all the the while I spend my time making games/escapes now I know ones always what they say but you know they should yeah and I know I want thatto change and I know I want that now I know I want that please
