

Deathblow, Strength Of Heart

Rise

Rise up and stand for who you are and what you believe

Integrity and strength of fucking heart

Makes a man someone I can believe

Those fucking cowards

They turn their fucking back and runaway from their fucking words

There's nothing worse than a blank face liar

When your world is all you have

Run

Runaway and hide your shame from this fucking world

A life of promises is something I believe

Is who I am and who I'll be

This is who I am

From day one till now

Until my last breath leaves me

I'll never change

I'll never fall

I will hold strong till the end

I'll never change

This is my fucking heart

This is my belief

Rise

Rise Up

Rise up and Stand with me
