

Deathbot, My Oh My

There's a shakedown tonight
There's a calm in the fight
And I think it's time we move on

Now there's nothing to say
It's just a shame to be brave
It's something that I cannot give

My oh my
There's a circus outside
And it's calling your name
In bright yellow flames
My oh my
It's an animals ride
With tracks made of gold
And wheels that will head to the road

There's a shakedown tonight
There's a calm in the fight
And I think it's time we let go

It's just a crawl in the dust
Just a break in these hands
There's somethings that I cannot have

My oh my
There's a circus outside
And it's calling your name
In bright yellow flames
My oh my
It's an animals ride
With tracks made of gold
And wheels that will head to the road

There's a shakedown tonight
There's a calm in the fight
And I think it's time we move on
