

Deathray, Now That I Am Blind

what do you see when you see what seems to bleed right through me why do you act so suprised to find my hands over my eyes maybe there's a reason that we are running the red lights is it because we just can't see them?

or have we lost our minds?

baby we're so tragic i'm lost inside the static still your name has got a real nice sound to it now that i am blind

now that i am blind (4x)

now that i am blind (4x)

now that i am blind (3x, with echo each time)
