

Deathstars, Synthetic Generation

I play hell you play heaven, I am death's own little star...
Can you trace the sins that haunt you
And play the Devils cards as I do

I am all that you see
I am all that you want me to be

I am God and so the Antichrist
I'm blessed, yet damned
I'm fallen, yet resurrected
I am all of nothing

I play death, you play alive, tripple sixes to rise...
Can you see the visions I brought you
And the devilish games that I taught you

I am all that you see
I am all that you want me to be

I am God and so the Antichrist
I'm blessed, yet damned
I'm fallen, yet resurrected
I am all of nothing

Synthetic generation
Stop not it's indifference high you must know...

I am all that you see
I am all that you want me to be

I am God and so the Antichrist
I'm blessed, yet damned
I'm fallen, yet resurrected
I am all of nothing

I am God and so the Antichrist
I'm blessed, yet damned
I'm fallen, yet resurrected
I am all of nothing

I am God and so the Antichrist
I'm blessed, yet damned
I'm fallen, yet resurrected
I am all of nothing

I am all of nothing...
