

Debelah Morgan, Passion

(Alvaughn "A.J." Jackson, Leonard "Domino" Sinclair)

Excuse me

What? (what?)

Another woman

I mean

How could you do this to me?

I mean

Was she there

when you were down and lonely?

No

And was she there

when you needed some tender loving care?

You tell me

Ooh

Passion what's it gonna be

You and I

Me and you

Baby tell me what's going on

It seems there's a problem

Now you tell me

There's another woman in your life

What you expect me to do?

Don't you know you were my passion lover?

Passion what's it gonna be

You and I

Me and you

Passion lover

Passion what's it gonna be

(What's it gonna be baby)

You and I

Me and you

Baby listen

Don't you know I love you

(Listen to me)

What do you expect me to do?

Help me (???), are you driving me crazy?

Passion

What's it gonna be

You and I

Me and you

You driving me crazy

Driving me crazy baby

Passion what's it gonna be

Can't wait not more baby

You and I

Me and you

I can't wait no more no more no more

And I thought love was real

Noone could tell us we were wrong

Oh

And how do you expect me to believe what you say

When another woman's been taking my place

Passion passion passion

Passion

Passion

What you gonna be baby

Can't wait no more

Can't wait no more

So what's it gonna be baby

You hurt me

You hurt me

Oh yeah

Oh what's it gonna be

What's it gonna be

What's it gonna be
What's it gonna be baby baby baby baby baby baby
How can I be lonely lonely lonely
The ??? you love me
I'm gonna take my things and walk out that door baby
Passion what's it gonna be
You won't hurt me no more
You and I
You can't keep me here like a fool waiting for you
When another woman's there taking my place
What's it gonna be
What's it gonna be
What's it gonna be
You and I
I'm waiting here for you
Tell me baby
What's it gonna be
So what's it gonna be baby?
