

Deborah Allen, Hurt Me

Hurt me:
Why in the world did you hurt me?
Just when I thought I'd found someone to trust,
You took away your love.

And hurt me:
Still can't believe you would hurt me,
Just when I thought it was safe to come in,
You let me want you and need you and then,

You left me,
Like a child in the rain.
Now I'm rubbing myself in the pain.

Oh, you hurt me.

Instrumental break.

Yes, you left me,
Like a child in the rain.
Now I'm lost in an ocean of pain.

Hurt me:
I fell in love and it hurt me.
Can you imagine how I'm feeling now?
Oh, will you ever know how,
You hurt me?
