

Deborah Cox, It's Over Now (All Star Remix)

1 - (Deborah):

You've been cheatin' and telling me lies
You've been creepin' while I'm sleeping at night
And you've been chasin' every girl in sight
You've been messin' around and lying down
It's over now

(All-Star)

Yo, now whatcha sayin'?

Baby, it's over

Tryin' to forget about

Ordinary things, typical, predictable

Ooh, baby I knew the end before we started, hmm

You got me feelin' like I owe you something

'cause you were there in times when I had nothing

But you threw it all away with the shady things you do

2 - Baby, please forgive me

For what I'm 'bout to say

And what I'm 'bout to do

I can't take no more

I know you ain't been true

Ain't got no love for you

Repeat 1

Relying on my intuition

And pass it off as a suspicion

But you were just so bold

You kept putting it in my face, yeah

I can't deny I let you hurt me, oh no

Repeat 2

Repeat 1

You couldn't have appreciated my love

The love that we shared

You made a fool of yourself

So keep on walking

Don't keep on talking

(Dyme):

And you're not, what?

Dyme baby put it down

You ain't know

I got to go

What you thought

I was gonna stay with you

When I know about all that dirt you doing

The creeping, cheating

Sneaking out the house while I'm sleeping

I doubt that, like I'm havin' it

Go ahead with them loose and half-naked chicks

Thinking that they too Dyme for that

I bet that, when I'm gone, y'all miss the cat

It's over now, no Rover now

You getting back to your Nova now

I bet you didn't know I labeled you a clown now

See me getting dough and wanna come around now

Stop! Talking 'bout your cars, your rocks

His and her's furs with that played out fox
Diamonds, dead props to those chicks
Look back
All you gonna see is backside and hips

Repeat 1
