Lead:

Something inside of me is telling me to fight for what's right.

was caught up and praying one night I felt I was changing from within No it wasn't me but the promise of faith.. So I

Chorus:

Made a promise I was gonna do right,gonna do right That's why I'm bringing it all like this cause I know who was there for Now every since he's been in my life,been in my life. I get down on my knees each day and I thank him there for. Thank you lord

Lead:

Life is so full of promises
I get so mixed up
I really hate to think about it all. Since I put my faith in you I have somewhere to turn If it weren't for you who could I call. Instead of being me but it's a promise of faith.. So I (Chorus Repeat 5x/The end)
