

Decyfer Down, Here To You

Your signal across the sky,
Is trying to bridge the distance,
And all of the reasons why,
I'm so far away,
I know you can move the time,
And the space that falls between us,
I know you can cross the lines,
All I can say is,
Break them down

(Chorus:)

You are what's turning my world around,
Moving me close in the moment with a single motion,
Even when all of my stars are falling,
You pulled me from here to you

It feels like I'm falling down,
Through atmospheres and orbits,
And I'm moving without a sound,
I'm floating away,
But you are the satellite,
That makes the strong connection,
With messages through the night,
When the going is insane,
Send them down,
Cause they're keeping me alive,
Send them down

(Chorus)

A million miles away,
Is as close as a razor,
All the words I can't say,
In a breath of silence,
All the truth I'm looking for,
Is just beyond my shadow,
When I'm spinning in the night

You are what's turning my world around...

(Chorus)
