

Deep Purple, Super Trouper

I was a young man when i died
I was a flash, i was full of pride
I gave it all, i gave my soul, i was so strong
I felt the truth, i felt the pain in every song

How well you know me
You've seen me cry
I'm just a shadow
In a rock and roll sky

I was living in a rock and roll sky
I was a king, heavy on the style
Super trouper, yes i know you well, making me shine
I couldn't see what you did to me. i was so blind

How well you know me
You've seen me cry
I'm just a shadow
In a rock and roll sky

I wanna be like i was before
But this time i'm gonna know the score
I need a home i can leave behind knowing you're there
Super trouper, i can see you now, return your stare

How well you know me
You've seen me cry
I'm just a shadow
In a rock and roll sky
