

Deepest Blue, Can't Believe

If loneliness is stealing,
Then my heart goes out to you
I got nothing left to lose

Whats the point of trying?
I gave my world but you weren't move
I can't believe you took it all

I'm giving up on you
for all those things you put me through
Like petals on the floor
Crashed my world and faked it all

And you should know just what to do
I hope that time heals those that fall

I can't believe, this can't be true
Why can't you see we've got too much to lose?
A broken dream, a broken you
'Cause nothing else will mean the same for you

You say I must be dreaming
I won't be taken like a fool
You just can't rearrange the rules
Say that I hadn't been there
And all the lies you told before
See the cracks upon the wall

I'm giving up on you
for all those things you put me through
Like petals on the floor
Crashed my world and faked it all

And you should know just what to do
I hope that time heals those that fall

I can't believe, this can't be true
Why can't you see we've got too much to lose?
A broken dream, it's rather new
'Cause nothing else will mean the same for you

I used think my world is home
And now my world is going on
All alone, so alone
The pain will last forever

I used think my world is home
And now my world is going on
All alone, so alone
The pain will last forever

I can't believe, this can't be true
Why can't you see we've got too much to lose?
A broken dream, it's rather new
'Cause nothing else will mean the same for you
