

Deftones, Christmas

ah caca, scale skin, left alone revise me longing my sister she's my waiting owl don't stop believing

i'm just the last to kick the cup you think you know me oh, just shut the fuck up i keep my word cuz i'm bound to get it right standin up tall, and i'm jack, i'm jackin, im bustin balls to get back, and up again, i know my mind is set why is you still talkin and the world just got to me today oh, what we say, love and adore yea my child your child, let him go leave her believe her my sister she's a waiting owl ya cant stop believing

oh you dont know me oh, just shut the fuck up I keep my word, cuz i'm around to get it right
to get back, and up again, i know my mind is set
why is you still talkin and the world just got to me today oh, what we say, love and adore what's stolen, oh, when it's over
