Why do I have to leave
I just cannot say someone's calling me from so far away
Sometimes I hear
the bells of another land When I came I was dreaming dreams of a everlasting sun raised my hands for peace words of love on my tongue Sometimes I hear...
The more that I was falling the more I felt the light warmed my empty body in an endless night
Sometimes I hear...
So I went into my garden watched the flowers grow laid myself on the warm grass and death came very slow Sometimes I hear...
