

Deine Lakaien, The Game

Should I stay
go away
felling right
evening light
shines on my head
you are gone
said never dare
to find
here tonight on my own
no-one there
you are gone
all alone
try to find
without your help
a guiding hand
I still ask myself
is this love
this hate
I'm feeling
I was dead
would you weep
remember now
earthly world
place unsanctified it is Done no harm
remember now
earthly world
wail for what I believe and believe what I know
me, a coward
Let undress
those memories
forget the place where found the doubts
wonder why
guiding light
me a coward
you liar
I still ask myself...
