

Deine Lakaien, Venus Man

I came from far, came from nowhere
Over the sea, came through the air
Give me your love
Give me your love
Give me your love
Give me your love
Desires of freedom smashed to your lips
Taste of lost hearts on drowning ships
Give me your love...
Give me your dreams..
So tie me up to the mast
and longing for, and drifting past
Give me your love...
As time stands still, ships run aground forever the spirit, forever the sound
Give me your love...
