

Del Amitri, One More Last Hurrah

One more last hurrah
One more fearless stand at some nightclub bar
One more last hurrah
Gonna kiss our friends and then crash our cars
Crash our cars
One more last hurrah
Before we knuckle down and button up and figure out that fading out's the statement we've been looking for The state that we've been looking for
Hold on, I wanna say,
"My life looks okay"
Okay
One more last hurrah
Whatever else is waiting for us one last waste of time is all we're asking for All we're asking for
One more last hurrah
One more chance to forget who our enemies are
Hold on, I wanna say,
"My life looks okay"
"My life looks okay"
Okay
