

Del Reeves, Eyes Don't Come Crying To Me

I warned you this is how the end would be
So eyes don't come crying to me

The one you thought we'd never lose just stepped and walked away
Remember all the times I said she'd do just that someday
She takes so much and then no more I try to make you see
So eyes don't come crying to me

I see the teardrops trying to break through
I wish I could feel sorrier for you
But I warned you this is how the end would be
So eyes don't come crying to me
(steel)
She loved us so was true but know you had to look around
She just got tired of feeling like the biggest fool in town
Right now I'm alone on loneliness but short on sympathy
So eyes don't come crying to me
