Del Reeves, Paper Bunny

PAPER BUNNY (Hank Mills) '66 Johnny Bienstock Music, BMI

Living in a rundown cold one room apartment With a dirty alley on the window side T-shirt socks are drying on the lampshade Pasting bunny's in my scrapbook while I cry

Well I'm just pen existing when I should be living But this bachelor don't make that kind of money So I'm a live a loner if I had her address I'd phone her But my love's wrapped up in a paper bunny Working in a cutlery chain store stock department Just a lonely gofer stock boy day by day It's still dark when I get up for work each morning And the street lights walk me home to hit the hay

Well I'm just pen existing when I should be living...

I said all my love's wrapped up in a paper bunny I said all my love's wrapped up in a paper bunny Yes all my love's wrapped up in a paper bunny
